

WINTER BREAK

Brrr, it's cold outside and we're planning a sunny getaway in our bathroom. The powdery-soft scent of Tahitian gardenia in Thymes Beauty of Bathing Coco Monoi Shower Gel, $45, and Body Creme, $70, makes us feel all warm and fuzzy inside and leaves our skin silky, too. Book your trip now.

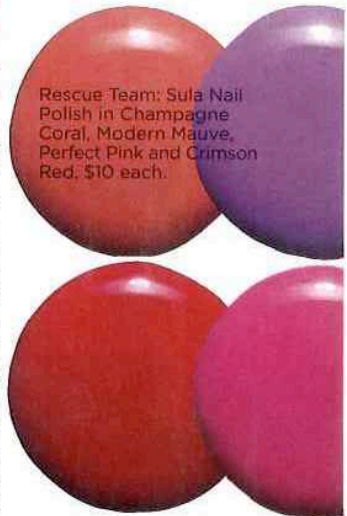

Fragrance junkie-turned-fragrance maker Christina Aguilera tells flare.com all about her latest hit—her very own scent called Inspire, $59. Catch up with the star at flare.com/fashionbeauty.

NOTES FROM OUR BEAUTY EDITORS

GOOF PROOF

It's happened to us over and over again: We're five minutes shy of an important meeting/fête/first date and our nail polish chips, adding a dent to our finely tuned image of perfection. Sula Nail Polish to the rescue. It dries as a thin plasticized film that peels off lickety-split, plus it's water-based and nontoxic.

Rescue Team: Sula Nail Polish in Champagne Coral, Modern Mauve, Perfect Pink and Crimson Red. $10 each.

Harvey Prince, a U.S. antiaging and fragrance company, says there's another way we're aging—an increase in body odour. As a result, it dreamed up Ageless Fantasy, which claims to bathe us in notes of youth. The result is a tropical floral that's just too sweet and unsophisticated. We prefer Guerlain Élixir Charnel in Gourmand Coquin (above), $245, to suit our stylish grown-up taste.
